It was a Sourcer nothing concrete, but that was the role

Blows my mind they would verbally offer me the role but now all this. Makes our industry look so bad.

Once this is all finalized (one way or another) i can't wait to get to the bottom of all this.

Totally agree

For all I know I could've been some sourcers passive pipeline building for female talent 😂 but wanted to let you know nonetheless

I really appreciate it. All is good, it's exhausting thinking about all the moving parts here. I really wish there was more out there so I can go focus on finding something else better, but we all know there isn't much. :-)
